It’s been an exciting and eventful year at the Chesapeake Bay Maritime Museum. While CBMM’s educational, curatorial, and shipyard teams all launched many new programs and projects, I wanted to call out two initiatives that merit special attention:

- Maryland Dove. From a competitive bid process, CBMM was selected to build a new Maryland Dove, a reproduction of the early 17th-century trading ship that accompanied the first European settlers to what is now Maryland. The contract between CBMM and Historic St. Mary’s City Commission was signed in late December 2018. On June 1 of this year, during CBMM’s inaugural Maritime Day, we reached a major project milestone with the laying of the keel. All work building Maryland Dove will be done in full public view, allowing the public to experience every stage of the project. The goal of the updated ship design is to be as close to the c. 1630 original as possible, including historical features that were not known when the first reproduction Maryland Dove was launched in 1978. The new ship is targeted for sea trials in late 2021.

- Rising Tide. CBMM’s Rising Tide After-School Program teaches students basic boatbuilding and woodworking skills. Students are encouraged to become more academically prepared to achieve long-term success, whether on a college or vocational track, having gained skills in mathematics, engineering, team-building, and project management. Now in its fifth year, the program has more than quadrupled its student base from approximately 20 students to more than 85. For a young mind, the experience can be both lasting and significant.

Embarking on new initiatives and creating successful and growing programs is great. Even better is the impact these bring to the community in terms of increased employment, new skills, and learning for our youth and the increasing number of visitors to the area.

Thank you for your support of the Chesapeake Bay Maritime Museum—whether you’re a member, guest, volunteer, sponsor, board member, or someone who shares our love and enthusiasm for the Bay and its people.

P.S. – Fall is a great time to visit CBMM. Remember to view On Land and On Sea: A Century of Women in the Rosenfeld Collection, featuring the work of famed maritime photographers Morris and Stanley Rosenfeld. On Land and On Sea reveals the social and historical context of women in a maritime context over the better part of the 20th century through the lenses of the Rosenfelds’ cameras.
Gifts to the Collection

CBMM’s impressive collection of more than 70,000 Bay-related artifacts and archival materials depends in large part on the generosity of individuals. This past year, we received more than 1,000 ship and sail plans, around 200 photographs, 18 manuscript collections, and 130 books. We are enormously grateful to the donors who contributed to CBMM’s collection. A few highlights are shown here.

Highlights include:
A collection of sketches, watercolors, and drawings by Owen Davis, an artist and designer who worked at the Oxford Boatyard; a quarterboard for the bugeye Ernst Langhammer; the 1736 “Virginia and Maryland” map by Herman Moll; a J.L. McCready “Navy Brand” oyster display box; the 1864 log canoe Glide; a bell from the ferry John M. Dennis; ballroom chairs from the Tolchester Hotel; a collection of sketches by “Gunning the Chesapeake” author Roy E. Walsh; yacht photographs by R. Howe Lagarde; images of Tilghman Island’s watermen in the 1970s by James Hosier; and objects and papers from sailmaker Claude Dudley Boycott.
CBMM is grateful to the following friends who donated a variety of items to the collection over the past year:

Our goals are to maximize the percentage of your investment toward programs for the community, to minimize borrowings to protect our future, and to maximize the endowment to provide world-class programming for generations to come.
We extend our deepest gratitude to our donors for gifts received between March 1, 2018, and Feb. 28, 2019. It is only through the generosity of our friends and supporters that CBMM can fulfill its mission and impact lives by igniting a spark of interest and passion for the Chesapeake Bay and its heritage and culture. Gifts of $100 or more to The Annual Fund, Boating Party, Comprehensive Campaign, Collection, Endowment, Pre-Boating Party, Sponsorships, or otherwise restricted are listed here. Please see The Annual Impact Report online at cbmm.org for an inclusive list of all donors. Every gift is greatly appreciated! Thank you!

CBMM works hard to be as accurate as possible in compiling information for our Honor Roll of Donors. If there are any errors or missing information, please contact Vice President of Advancement Liz LaCorte at 410-745-4956.
