5. Volunteers
On behalf of the Board of Governors of the Chesapeake Bay Maritime Museum, many thanks to those of you listed in the pages of this report who supported CBMM so generously in FY20. Your generosity enabled CBMM to experience its most successful year since its founding in 1965, both programmatically and financially.

More than 84,000 guests visited CBMM last year, a meaningful increase over prior years. They came to see the remarkable construction of the new reproduction ship Maryland Dove, the preservation and restoration of CBMM’s magnificent floating fleet, first-class exhibitions, and to participate in a wide variety of educational programs.

Significantly, participation in PK–12 programming nearly doubled over the prior year since CBMM’s educational reach was expanded to school groups. And, after starting in the sixth grade, the first participant in our acclaimed Rising Tide boatbuilding program graduated from high school.

Attesting to CBMM’s strong financial health and commitment to accountability and transparency, Charity Navigator, America’s largest independent charity evaluator, recognized CBMM with yet another 4-star rating. This is the fourth consecutive year CBMM has earned this top distinction.

These successes would not have been possible without the inspired leadership of President Kristen Greenaway and her very talented staff. Please extend your gratitude and appreciation for all their hard work and dedication for the people of the Chesapeake Bay.

The current fiscal year began just as the COVID-19 pandemic came upon us, and CBMM was forced to close its doors for more than three months. While CBMM has reopened, FY21 will look a lot different than FY20, and the financial challenges will be considerable. All our festivals have been canceled this year due to virus concerns, and the Charity Boat Donation Program is being challenged in this new environment. As a result, CBMM will not be able to rely as heavily upon traditional revenue sources to fund its operations and, like most nonprofits, is engaging in rigorous cost-containment efforts. We will need your support more than ever this year; I hope that you will be as generous as your circumstances permit.

Thank you, very, very much for helping to make CBMM a pillar of our community. CBMM is open, and we hope to see you on campus soon!
Gifts to the Collection

In 2019, through donations and purchases, CBMM added an impressive number of items to its collections, including 91 objects, more than 2,000 images, nine manuscript collections, and 130 books and periodical titles.

Highlights include:
Tangier Island watercolors by Marc Castelli; a salesman’s oyster dredge sample; an 1810 Springfield musket; an Otto Muhlenfeld painting of Apache; objects and ephemera from the Baltimore Steamship Company (also known as the Old Bay Line); a model of the Hoopers Island draketail Dixie; a can lidding device; 1970s images of boatbuilder Stanley Vansant; photographs of Jim Richardson building Maryland Dove; a large collection of photographs related to fishing; Chesapeake images by the late Robert Grieser; an account book from Phillips Packing Co.; vintage fishing equipment catalogs and magazines; a collection of boat manufacturer and dealer literature; drawings documenting the restoration of Edna E. Lockwood; and decoys by Calbert Tolley, Nelson Ball, John Graham, Junior Marshall, John Holly, and Ed Duffy.
CBMM is grateful to the following friends who donated a variety of items to the collection over the past year:

Our goals are to maximize the percentage of your investment toward programs for the community, to minimize borrowings to protect our future, and to maximize the endowment to provide world-class programming for generations to come.
We extend our deepest gratitude to our donors for gifts received between March 1, 2019, and Feb. 29, 2020. It is only through the generosity of our friends and supporters that CBMM can fulfill its mission and impact lives by igniting a spark of interest and passion for the Chesapeake Bay and its heritage and culture. Gifts to The Annual Fund, Boating Party, Comprehensive Campaign, Collection, Endowment, Pre-Boating Party, Sponsorships, or otherwise restricted are listed below. Every gift is greatly appreciated! Thank you!

CBMM works hard to be as accurate as possible in compiling information for the Annual Impact Report. If there are any errors or missing information, please contact Advancement Manager Anastacia Maurer at 410-745-4950.

From our Donors

“I guess I like the stories the most. Boats are cool, and restoring them is cool, but the stories of the people that relied on those boats to feed their families, the stories of what happened on the boats as watermen/women would tong for oysters on freezing mornings so long ago, the celebrations on the shores of the Chesapeake during long hot summers, the photographic images collected and curated to tell the stories of the people that shaped our culture. So, I guess I’m saying Collections.”

Kathy Bosin, Friends Board Member

“I am most proud of the positive changes that have occurred at CBMM since Kristen Greenaway became president. Our educational programming has improved dramatically; the Rising Tide program is superb; the restoration of Rosie Parks has made our floating fleet second to none; and the Dove project is a source of great pride.”

Richard Tilghman, Board Member

“I have a passion for photography, so the collections exhibited by the Chesapeake Bay Maritime Museum really give me a great sense of the history of the Chesapeake Bay. The added bonus is the ability to then actually see the historic vessels that are in the fleet. The combined experience really helps one understand the challenges and importance of the Chesapeake Bay over decades.”
